

Since many of the items lack a specific page number, the page number displayed online refers to the sequentially created number each item was given upon cataloging the materials.

a citizen, think that duty of the ttle and derein stated, udged upon xamine the an twenty ame to the ald not be a he Constiight to sue the whole rendered is 7) to speak the merits f the slav-lone avowho thought pen for relf had any "We are v some of ther the fore the if that t of the le quesuit Court l of exthe trial;

THE THAGEDY.

"An Eye for an Eye and a Tooth for a Tooth."
THE LAST END OF THE MURDERERS.
THEIR PARTING WORDS.

Their deportment—The preparations—The visitors or noticing the facts up at the jail—The approach of death—The approach of the scaffold—The dea h. any Judge, does not me

SHOULTZ-NEUSLEIN-LA POINTE.

Yesterday afternoon, between the hours of ten and four as directed in the death warrant, the extremest penalty of the law was enforced upon the persons of Israel Shoultz, Jacob Neuslein and John La Pointe. Despite the exertions of friends they then breathed their last. As they died for an equal grade of crime, so they died together, side by side.

the merits f the slavlone avowho thought ben for relf had any

"We are

During the night of Thursday, the condemned men, as we learn, spent their hours in prayer. The consoling influences of religion were brought to bear upon them, and under the careful watchfulness, the general belief was that they would die relying upon the mercy of that God into whose hands their souls were so soon to be delivered.

Their priests remained one with each until a late hour, and when they left, they expressed the firm conviction of their contrition of heart.

Correct. It was left to what is termed "the opi did so; but, thereupon, out seriutim their opin length. Why was positions taken by their contrition of heart.

The fact that, whill

At early morning, as we understand, for by joint request, visitors were denied their presence, they arose and dressed themselves, devoted their few remaining hours to holy exercises. The Holy Communion of the Last Support the per was vouchsafed to them, and with apparent patience they awaited the dread summons.

uit Court l of exl of exthe trial; allotted them Meantime the preparations in the jail yard were completed. The jail gate, delivered to the lawyer who should di

MONDAYMOL

THE DEED

Our correspondent, " views we expressed upo without touching the pr rests. What the dictz any Judge, does not me correct to say, that eve Judge TANEY met witl other Judges, or of a seven to nine, arrived at Scott was a slave, and and consequently the la Circuit Court in its inst correct. It was left to Why was The fact that, whil the legal result, there them as to the points in dered it necessary for e order to prevent the re grave error of our cor. supposing that the Cor Taney's opinion upo

VOI. XXXV ---- NO. 26

Zen? A majority of the Judges were of opinion, that he could not be a citizen of the United States; but as two of the dissenting Judges on this point, held, also, that the question was not open for review, no formal judgment is given upon this point.

Third. If a majority of the Court hold that the plea of abatement is not open for review, did the Circuit Court err in deciding upon the pleas in bar that Scott was a slave?

Under this head, two main points were presented by plaintiff for adjudication:

Missouri, north of 36 degrees 30 minutes free, after 1820, by the by virtue of the Missouri Compromise act?—ur; was Held, that the act in question so far as it prohibto write ited slavery, was unconstitutional, null and void.

es wrote into it, work his emancipation, so that he would on his return to the State of Missouri, be a free negro in that State; or would his servitude revere asmajority? tach; firstly, because the suspension of the rights of his master whilst domiciled in a free territory, by force of the local law there, did not continue any longer than he remained under that local law—that the laws of one Tterritory or State, can the imported by a negro or white man into another so as to override the constitution and laws of the latter; and secondly, because his status in Missouri was a question to be determined solely by the laws of Missouri, and what the Missouri laws are, is left to the adjudication of New York.

overts the a this case, sideration, opinion of nor is it vanced by ce of the 10 Court, hat Dred rt." He into the e error of

0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 MISSOURI BOTANICAL COPYRIGHT RESERVED GARDEN

PARTITION

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 23.

Col. STEWART and Maj. ROLLINS are on the stump together. They started out yesterday, at | the statue. It was veiled, appropriately, with California, in Moniteau county, and they have the flags of the Republic. As they were drawn made appointments for a month to come. They go into the Southwest, and there, we learn, the | Sculptor-Henry Dexter-the immense mul-Democracy, eschewing all former divisions about | titude burst forth in thunders of applause, remen, have resolved to vote for STEWART. Green | peated, enthusiastic and prolonged. The statue county is the only county about which there is is seven feet high, composed of the purest Italian any doubt in this respect, and there it is rather marble, and poised upon a pedestal of verde the hope of the leading Know Nothings against antique from Vermont quarry, the entire dishope, than any well founded expectation of success in keeping up the division of the Democrats | being eleven feet. The statue was cut from a upon personal and immaterial issues. This the block of marble originally weighing seven tons. election will show.

chief of the "Border Ruffians," as he called represents WARREN in citizen's dress, having a himself when he made his inroad into the Cin- sword in his right hand, and his left hand open, cinnati Convention, at the head of the Benton as if in the act of earnest expostulation. His Delegation from Missouri, armed with bludgeons | features, according to the description of the and pistols—the same set of men who met at statue, are lighted with the excitement of fierce Jefferson City and nominated BENTON for Gover- thought—his postrils dilated, and as the expresnor, knowing that he would be beaten out of sion of countenance that marked the patriot sight; the same set of men who, at Cincinnati, martyr is preserved, one could easily imagine, in cozened him into the folly of running for Gover- beholding the image, that he was gazing upon nor, and then entrapped him into the still greater the real preserce. folly of performing a "forty days' campaign" in midsummer, and yet could only give him some twenty-seven thousand votes—these same men have tacked themselves to Rollins' coat-tail, and will perform for him the same office that they performed for Col. Benton. They betrayed Benton that they might carry the county of St Louis: and they intend to see the Box 1995 and Louis; and they intend to support Rollins, not leave

STATUE OF WAREEN.

At the recent celebration at Bunker Hill, upon the occasion of the inauguration of the Statue of Gen. WARREN, the first distinguished victim of the Revolutionary War, the excitement was great when the moment came for the uncovering aside, revealing the noble work of an American tance from the ground to the crown of the figure Its weight, after passing through the artistic BLAIR, BROWN, BRANCH, T. L. PRICE, the process of the sculptor, was but two tons. It

> The Know-Nothing Convention of Massachusetts, last week, nominated N. P. Banks—the gentleman who was ready to "let the Union slide" in a certain contingency—for the office of

ST. JOSEPH CORRESPONDENCE.

Great Sale of Town Lots-Enhancement in St. Joseph Property-The City Crowded -Distinguished Strangers-Terrible Hail Storm, causing Death-Shooting Affair-Cold Weather-High Water-The U.S. Mail sunk -Academic Commencement.

ST. JOSEPH, June 18, 1857

South St. Joseph has been equally divided between Col's D. D. MITCHELL, RORERT M. REN- if concern ICK, and A. M. MITCHELL, and on Saturday last and the the great sale of lots took place on the premi- difficulties ses. It was conducted by Messrs. Dolman & WEST, and Capt. M. JEFF. THOMPSON, and was the most spirited and indicative sale of the season. It gave evidence of the great advancement in the value of real estate within the past year, and demonstrated its future appreciation by both denizens and strangers. It showed that | should re St. Joseph has grown at a most rapid rate, and adjourned at the ho yet that she is just starting in her careen of greatness. The average price at this sale was just Governor three times what it was at the sale a year ago, proceed disposed showing an advance of 300 per cent., and the bid- and the ding was so eager, and the city is spreading so will rapidly in that direction that I venture to predict an advance upon the present prices of 300 per cent. in another year. What better investments can there be than these? No where else can money be expended with the same certainty of large profits.

The enhancement in St. Joseph property is general. It has advanced more than one hundred per cent. per annum in every part of, and addition to the city; and it is moving on upward Governor of that State. Since that time, the | with a substantial and steady progression which |

NEW Y

Conferen

INTERVI

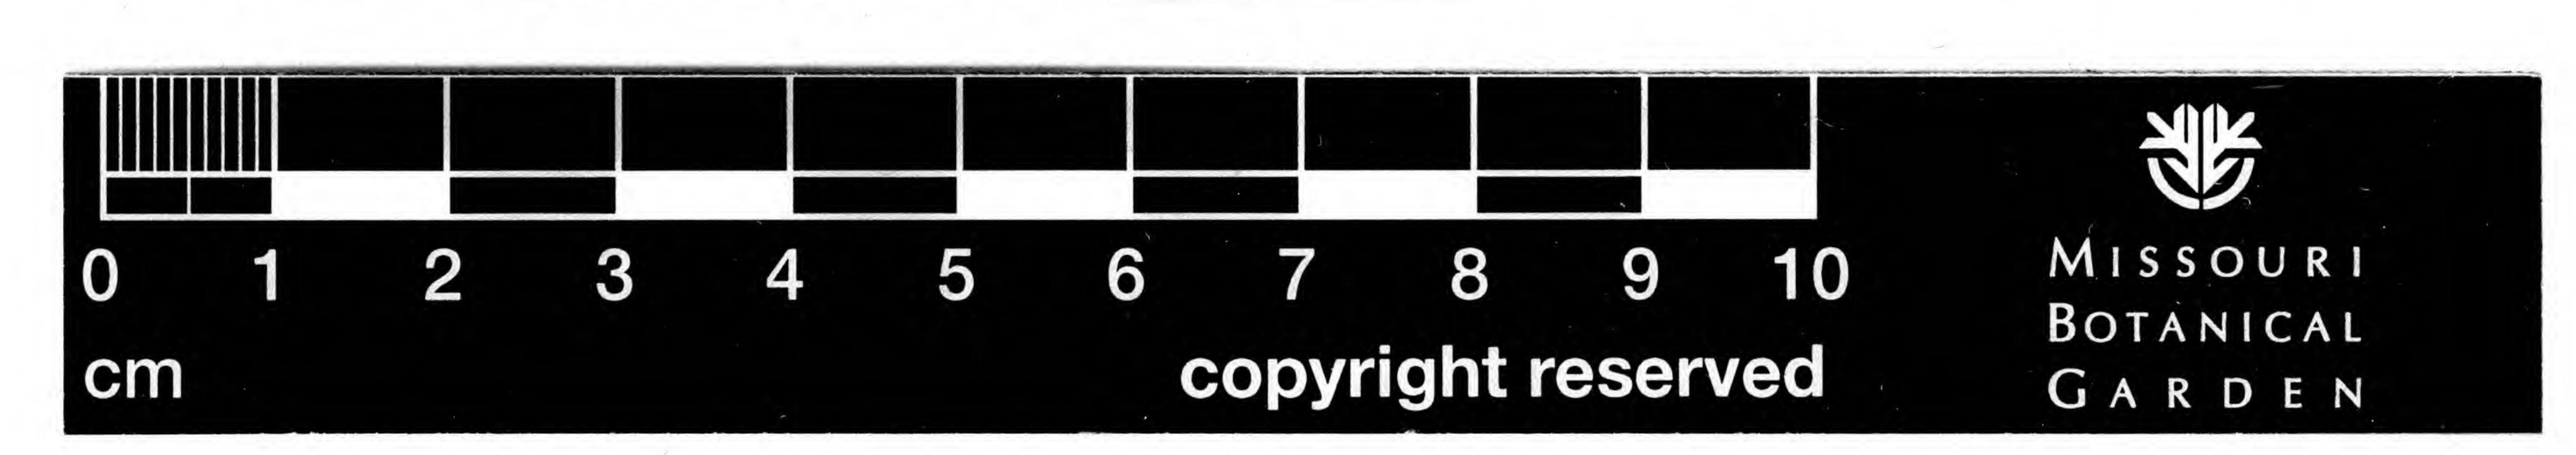

Disbandn

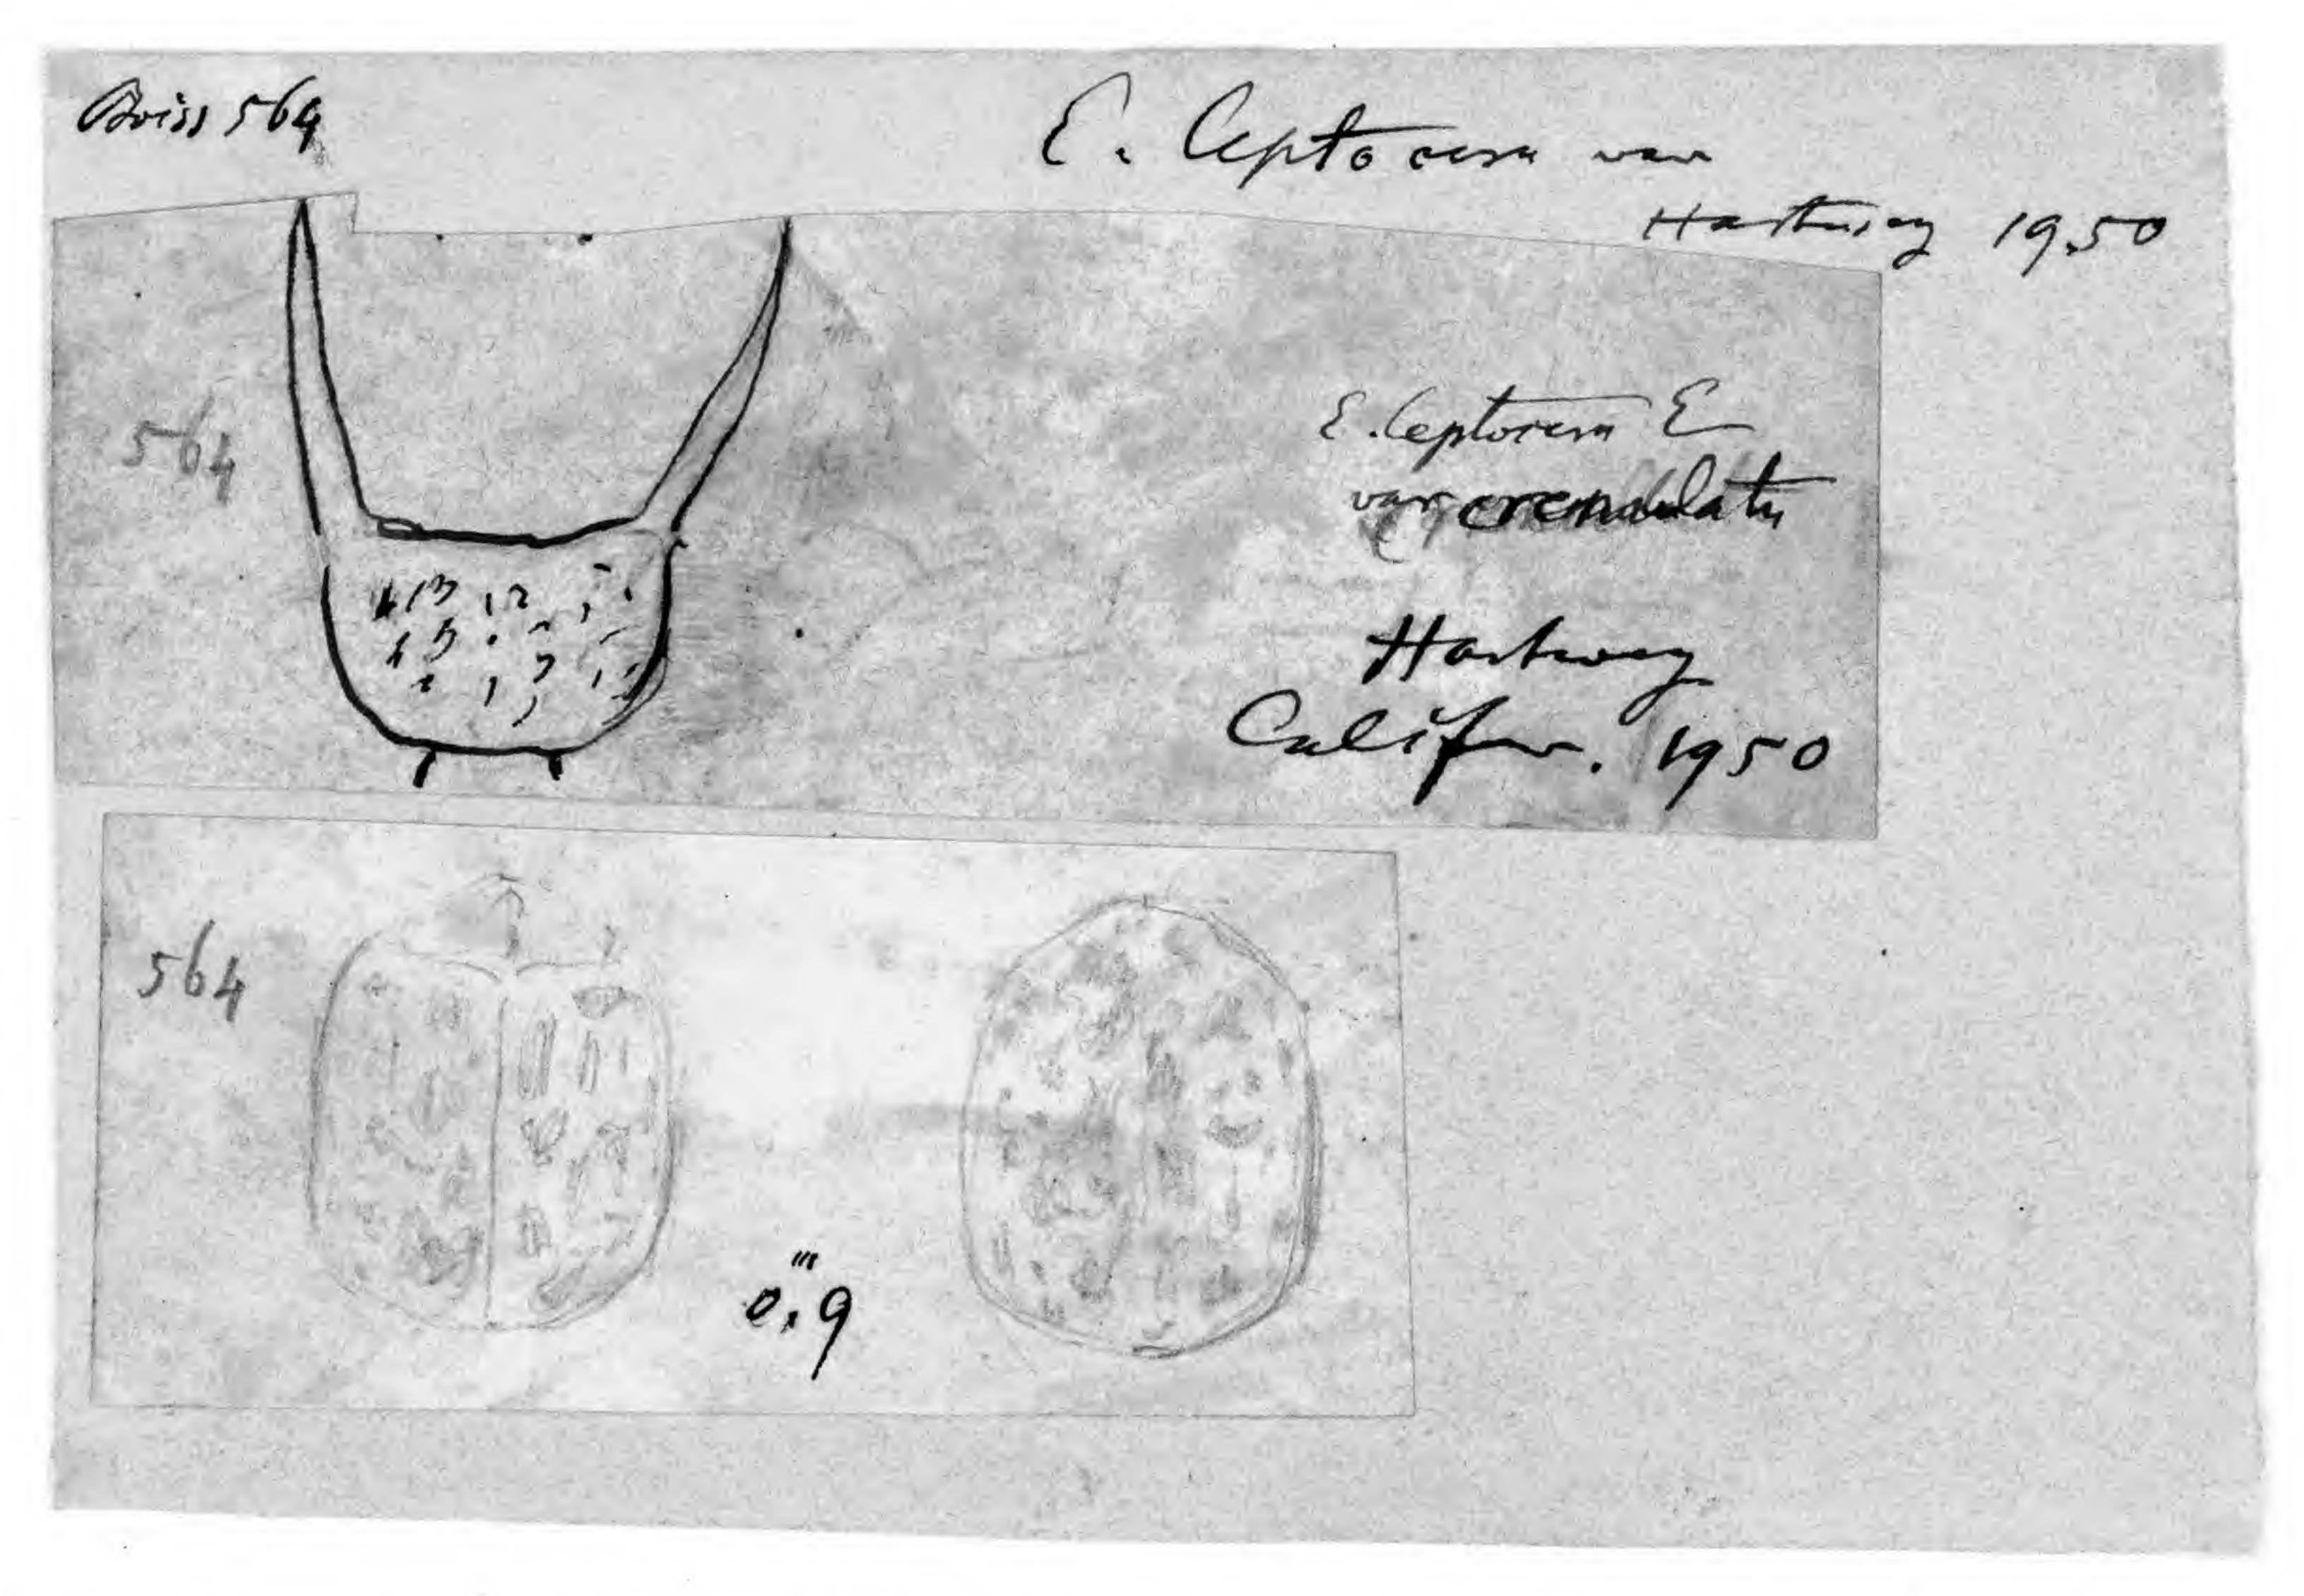

The Ne Municipal Wood, an The B. had a te Wednesd. nimost meet the ers' office whom th Board, public n the ever mission > and the was fur pleasur

was lor

remaini

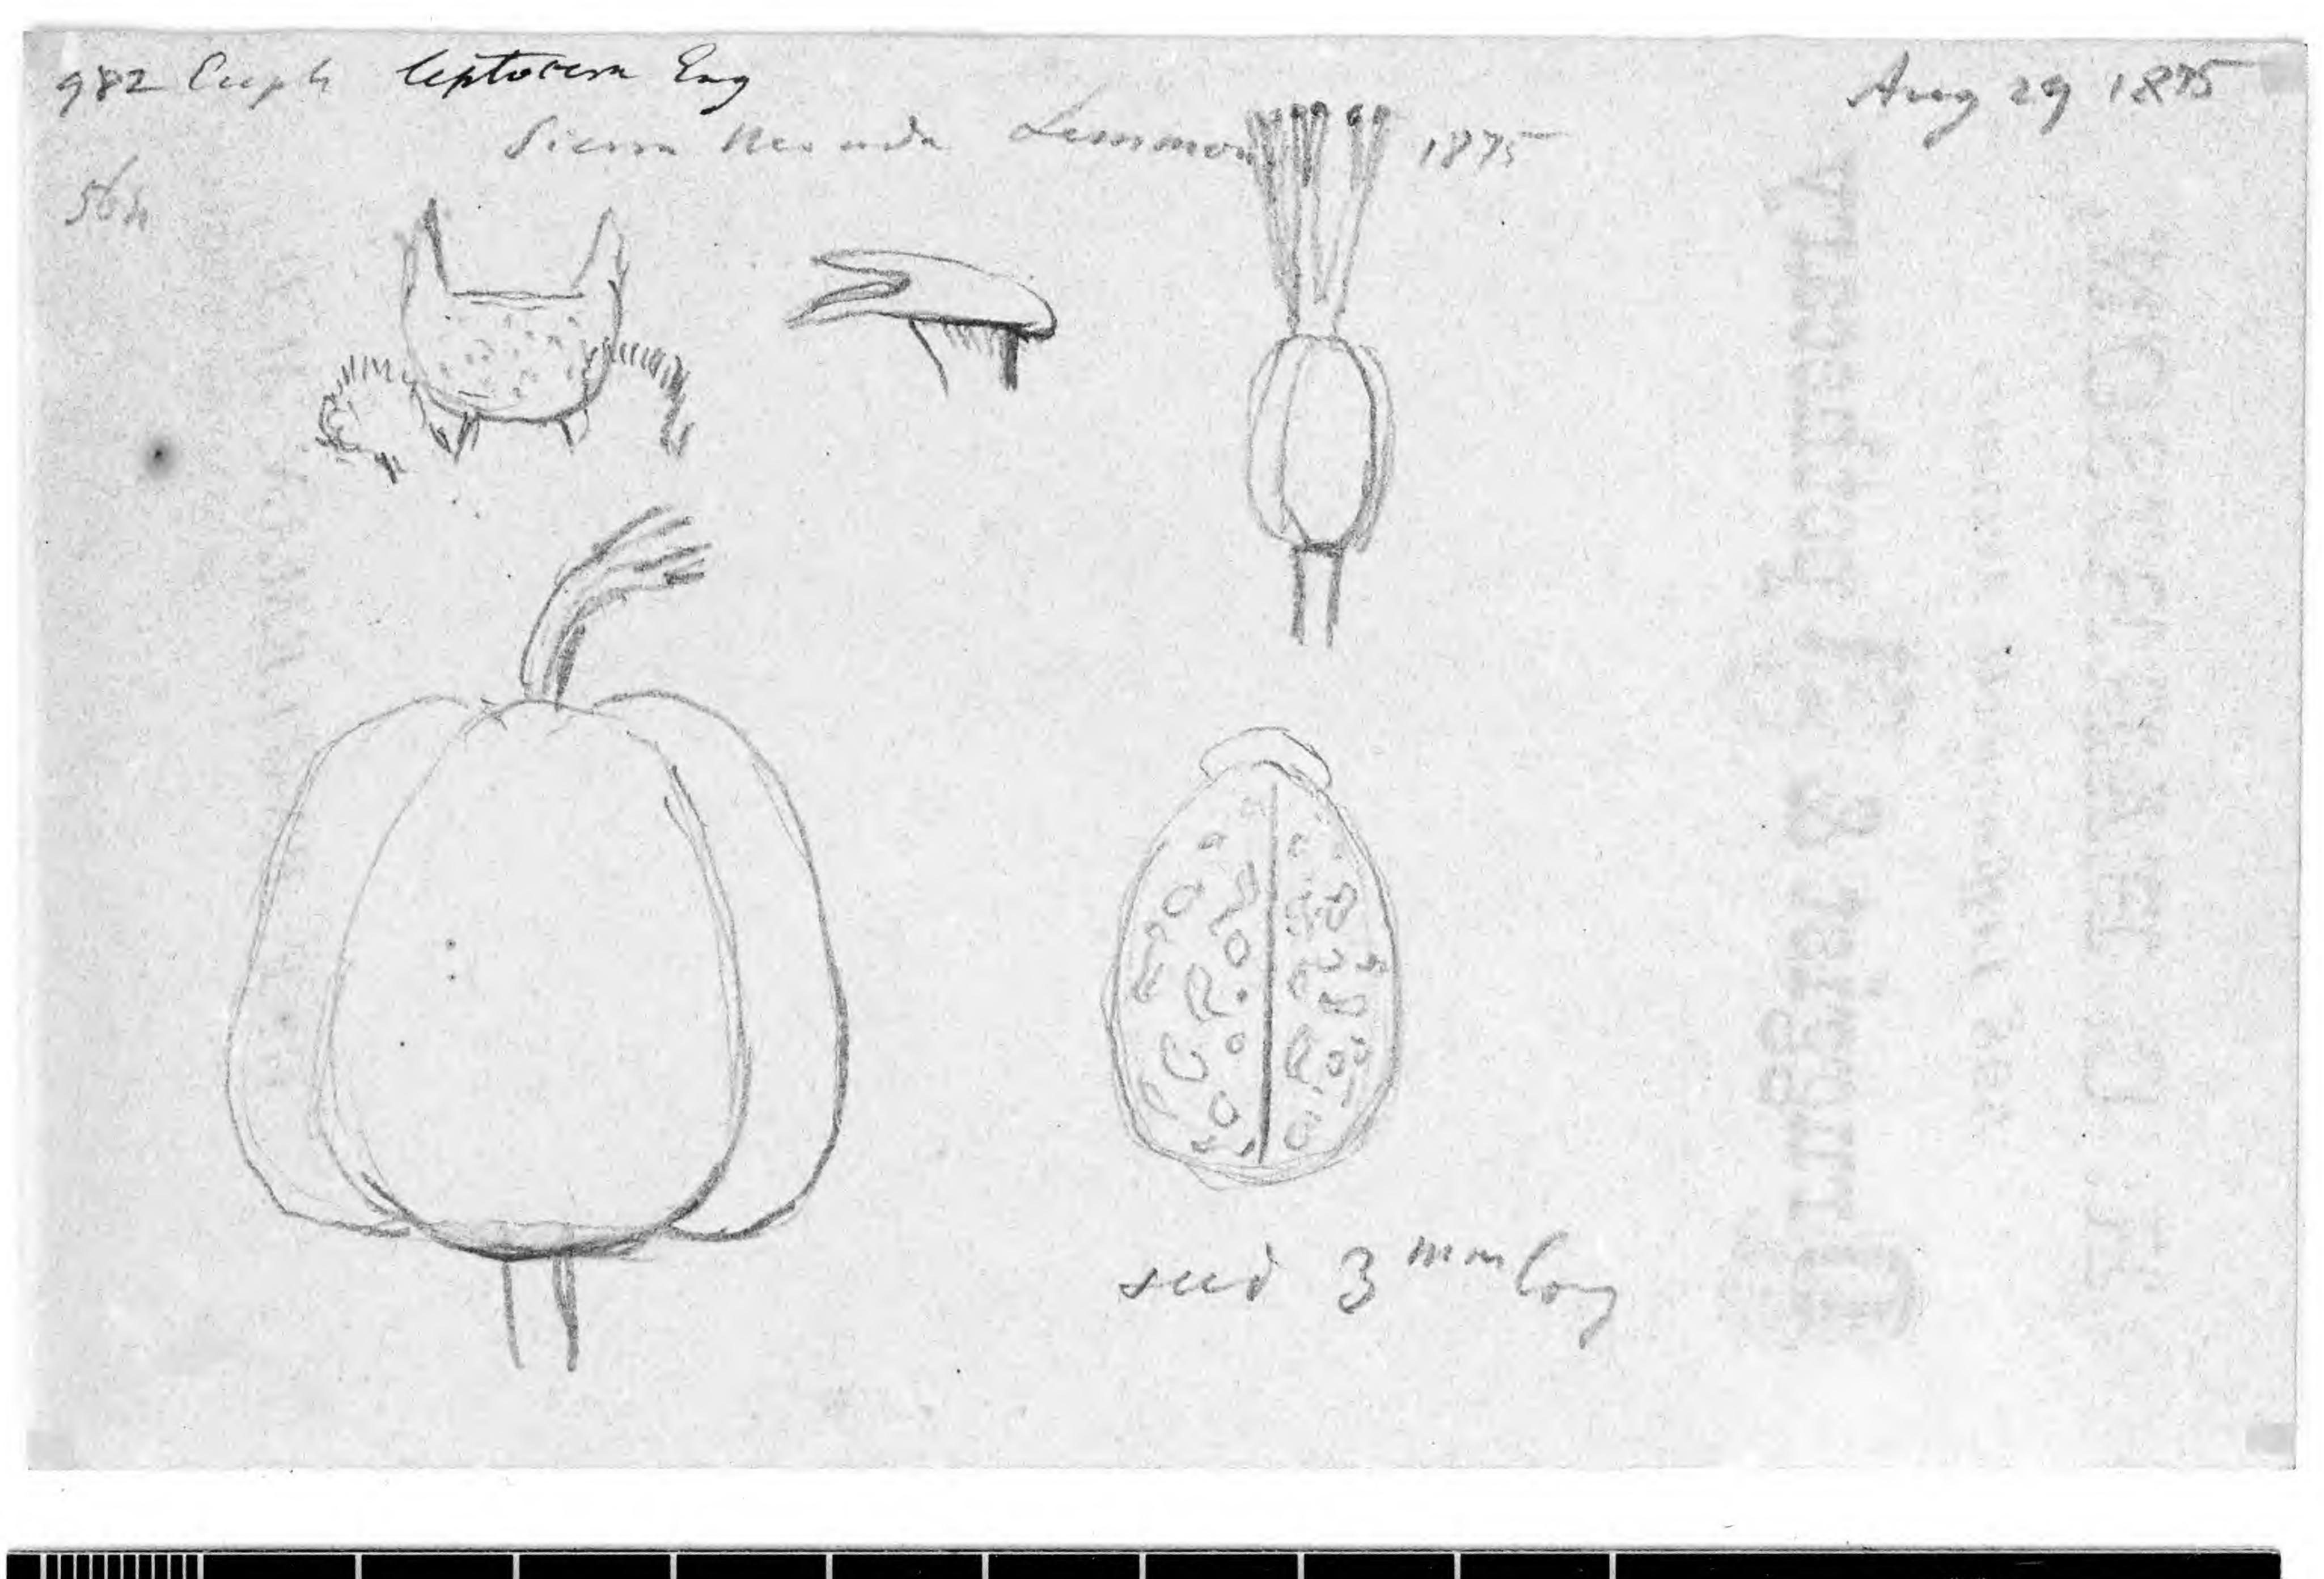

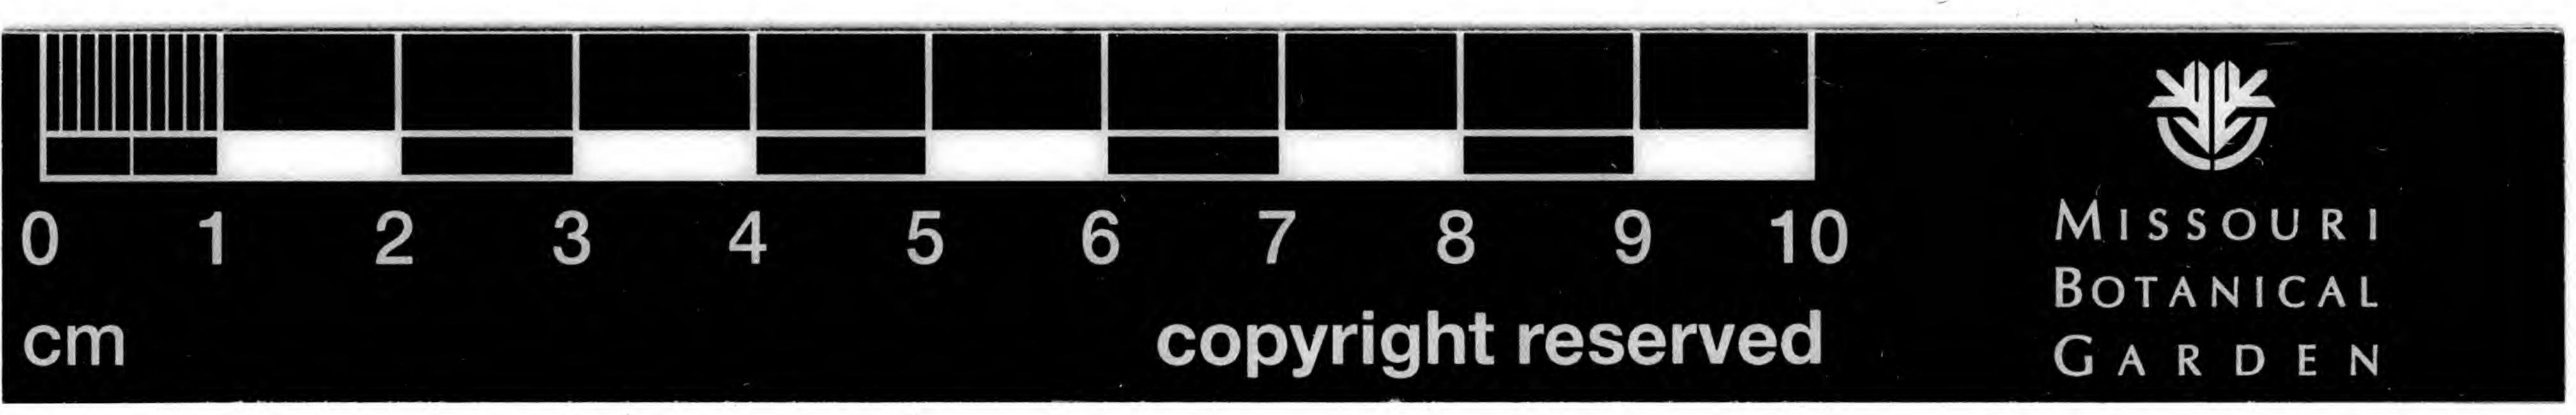

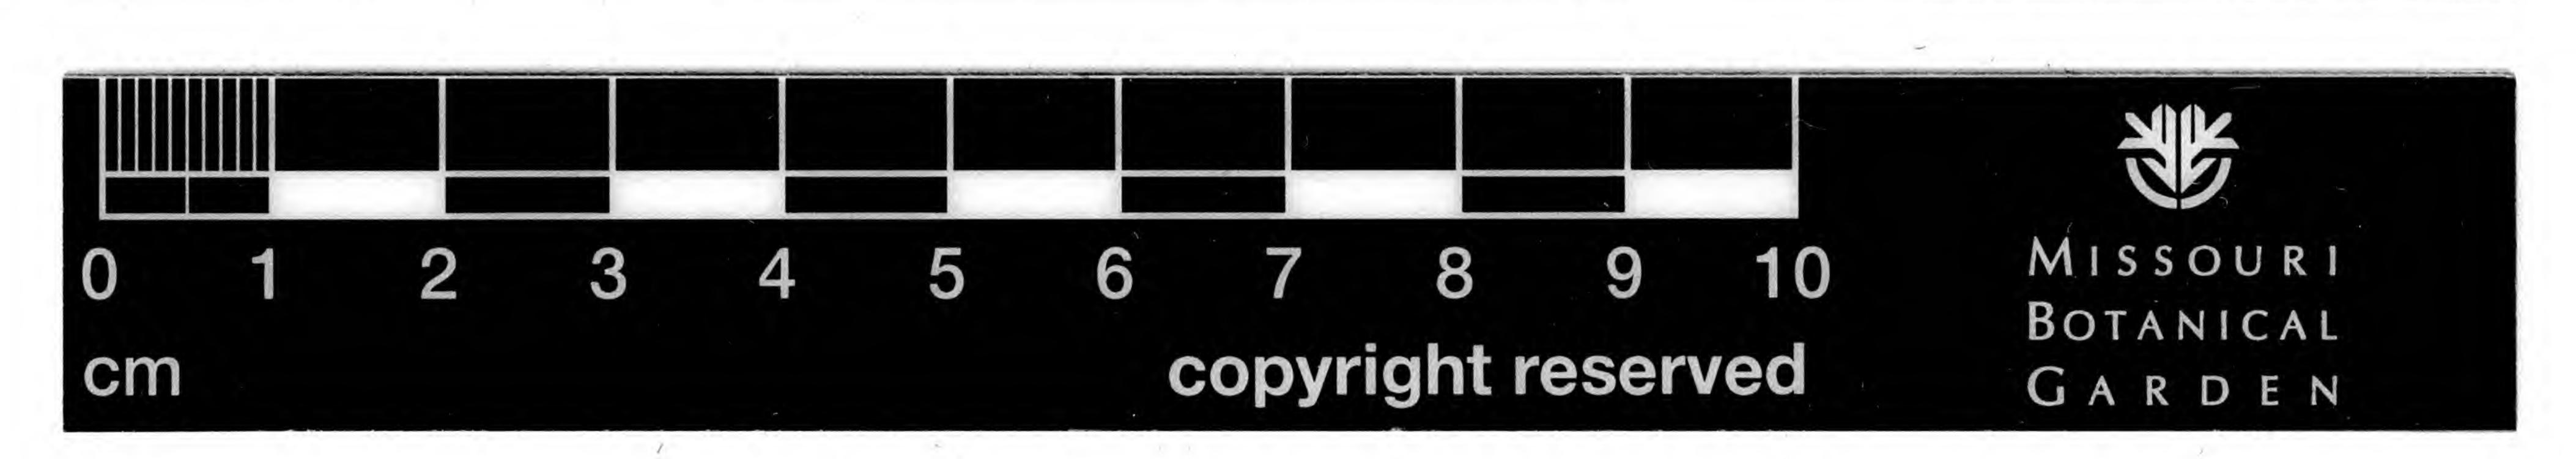

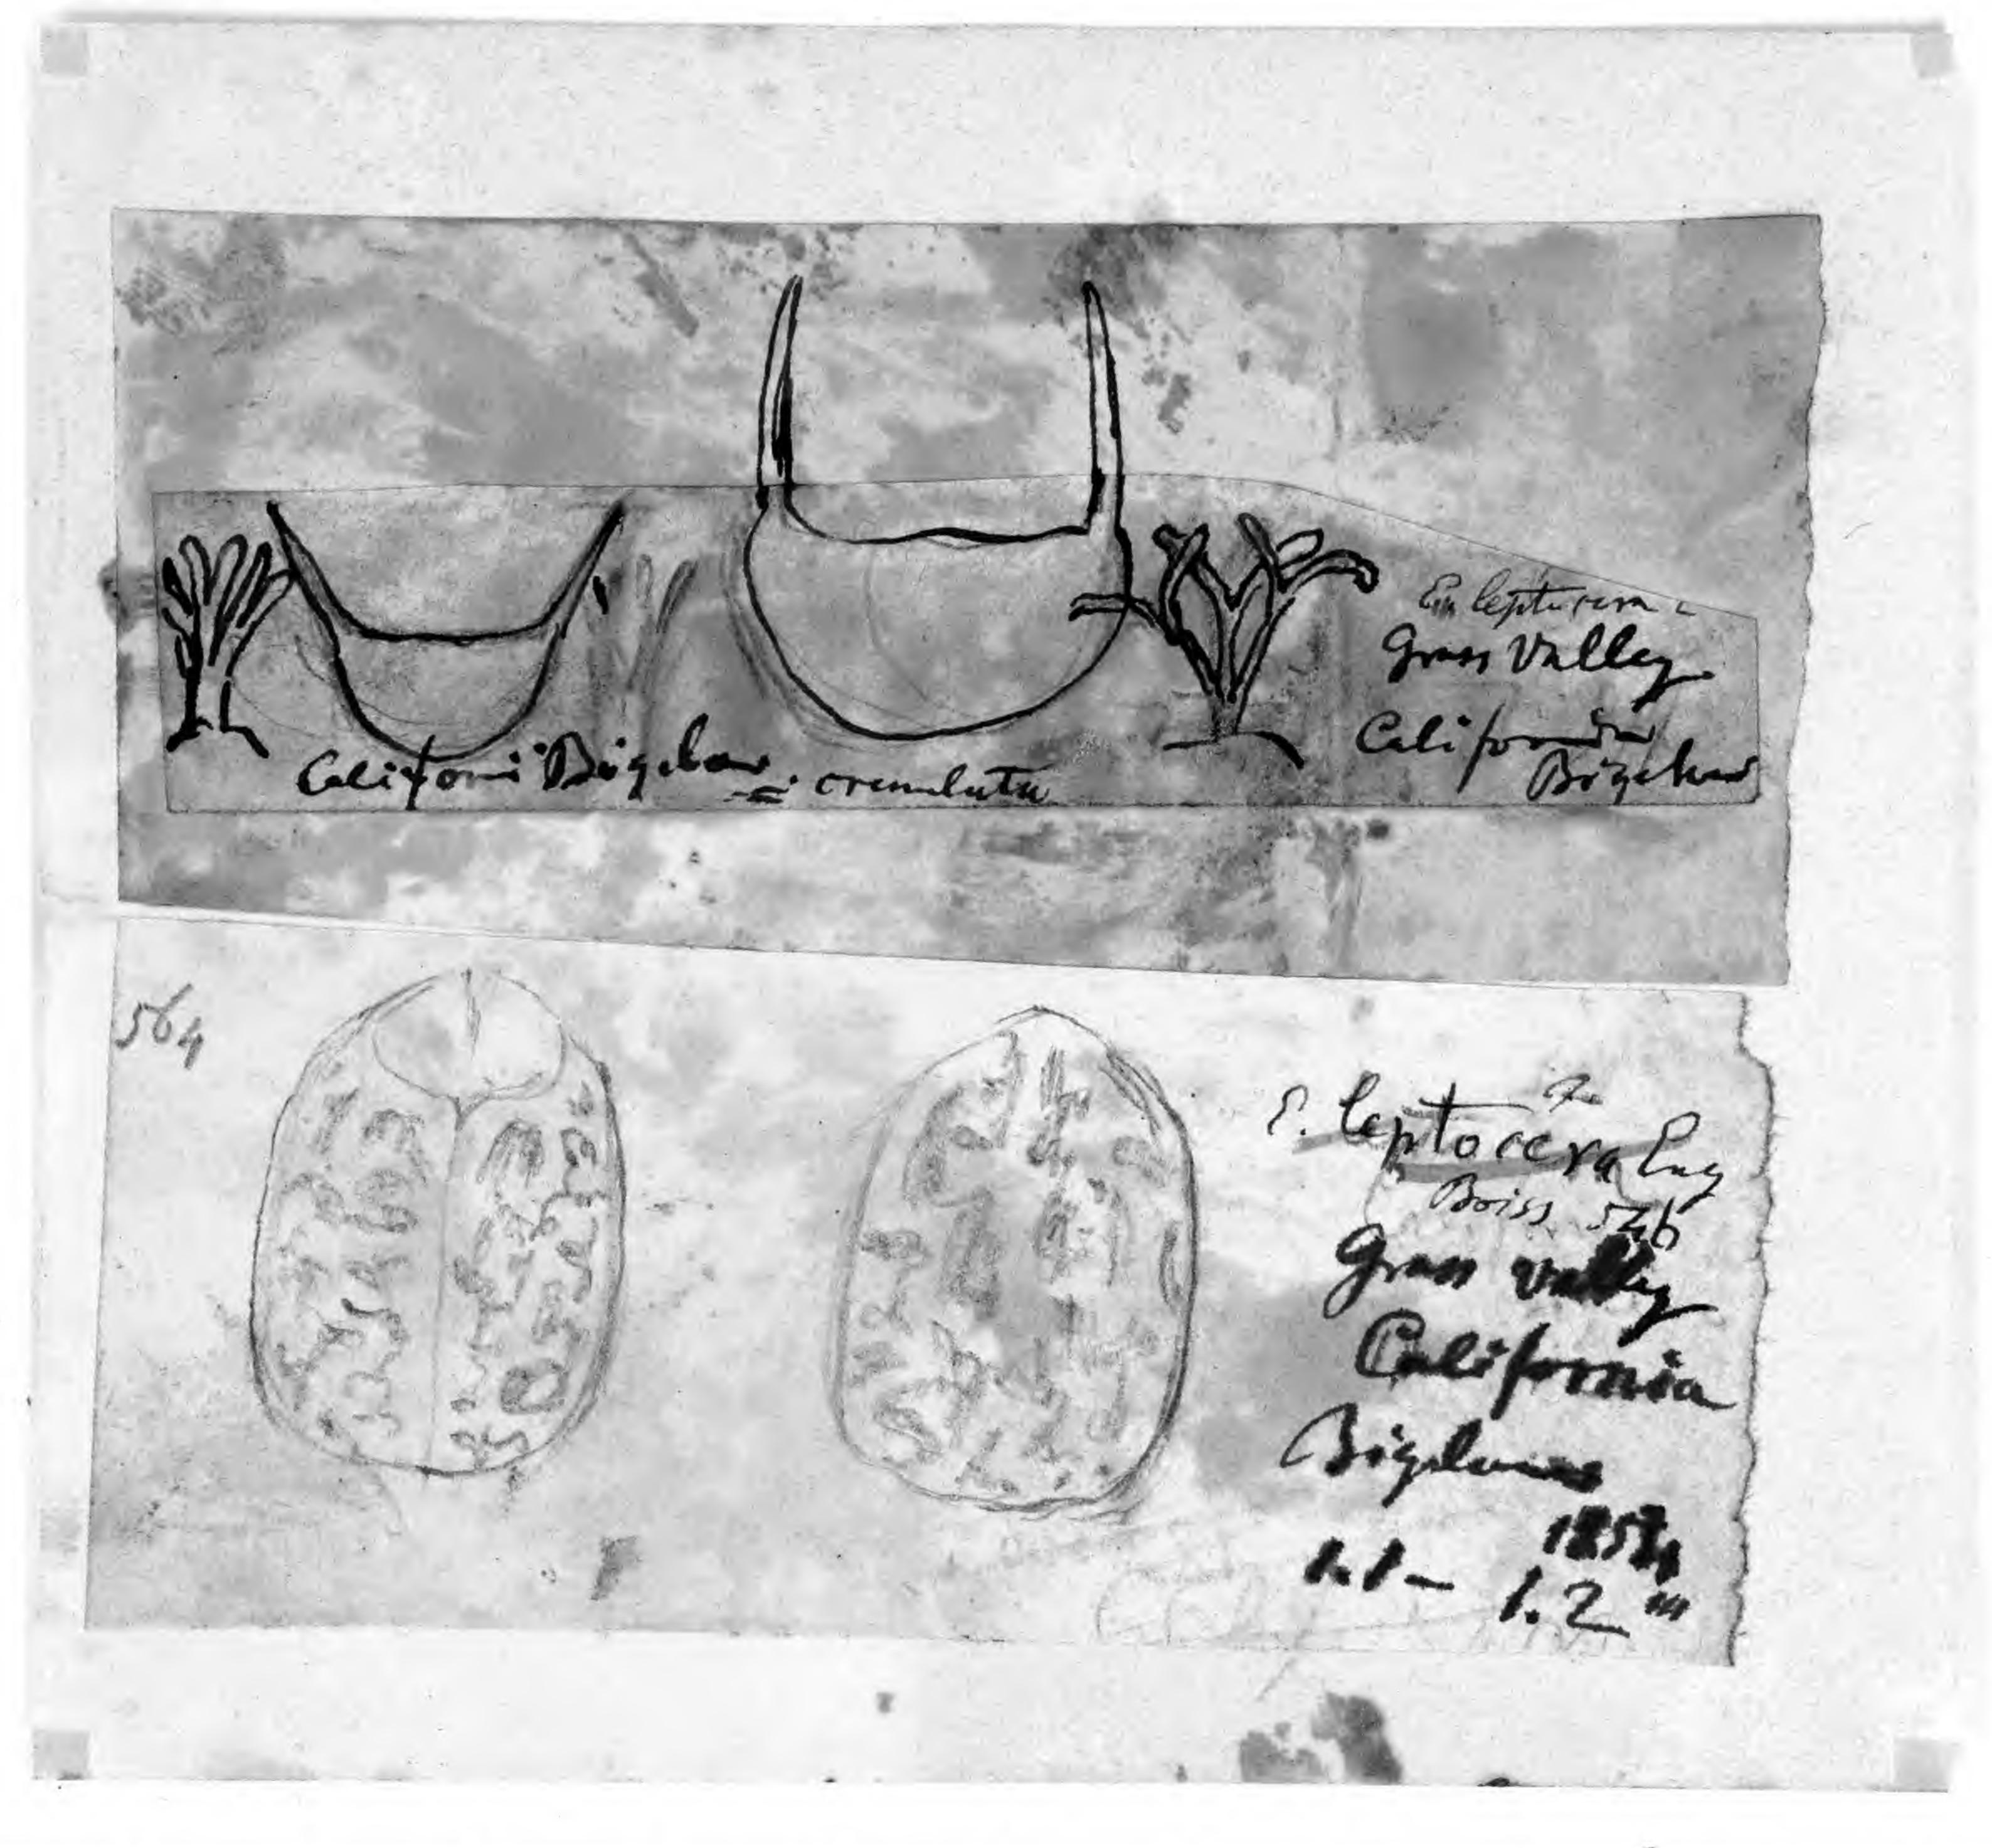

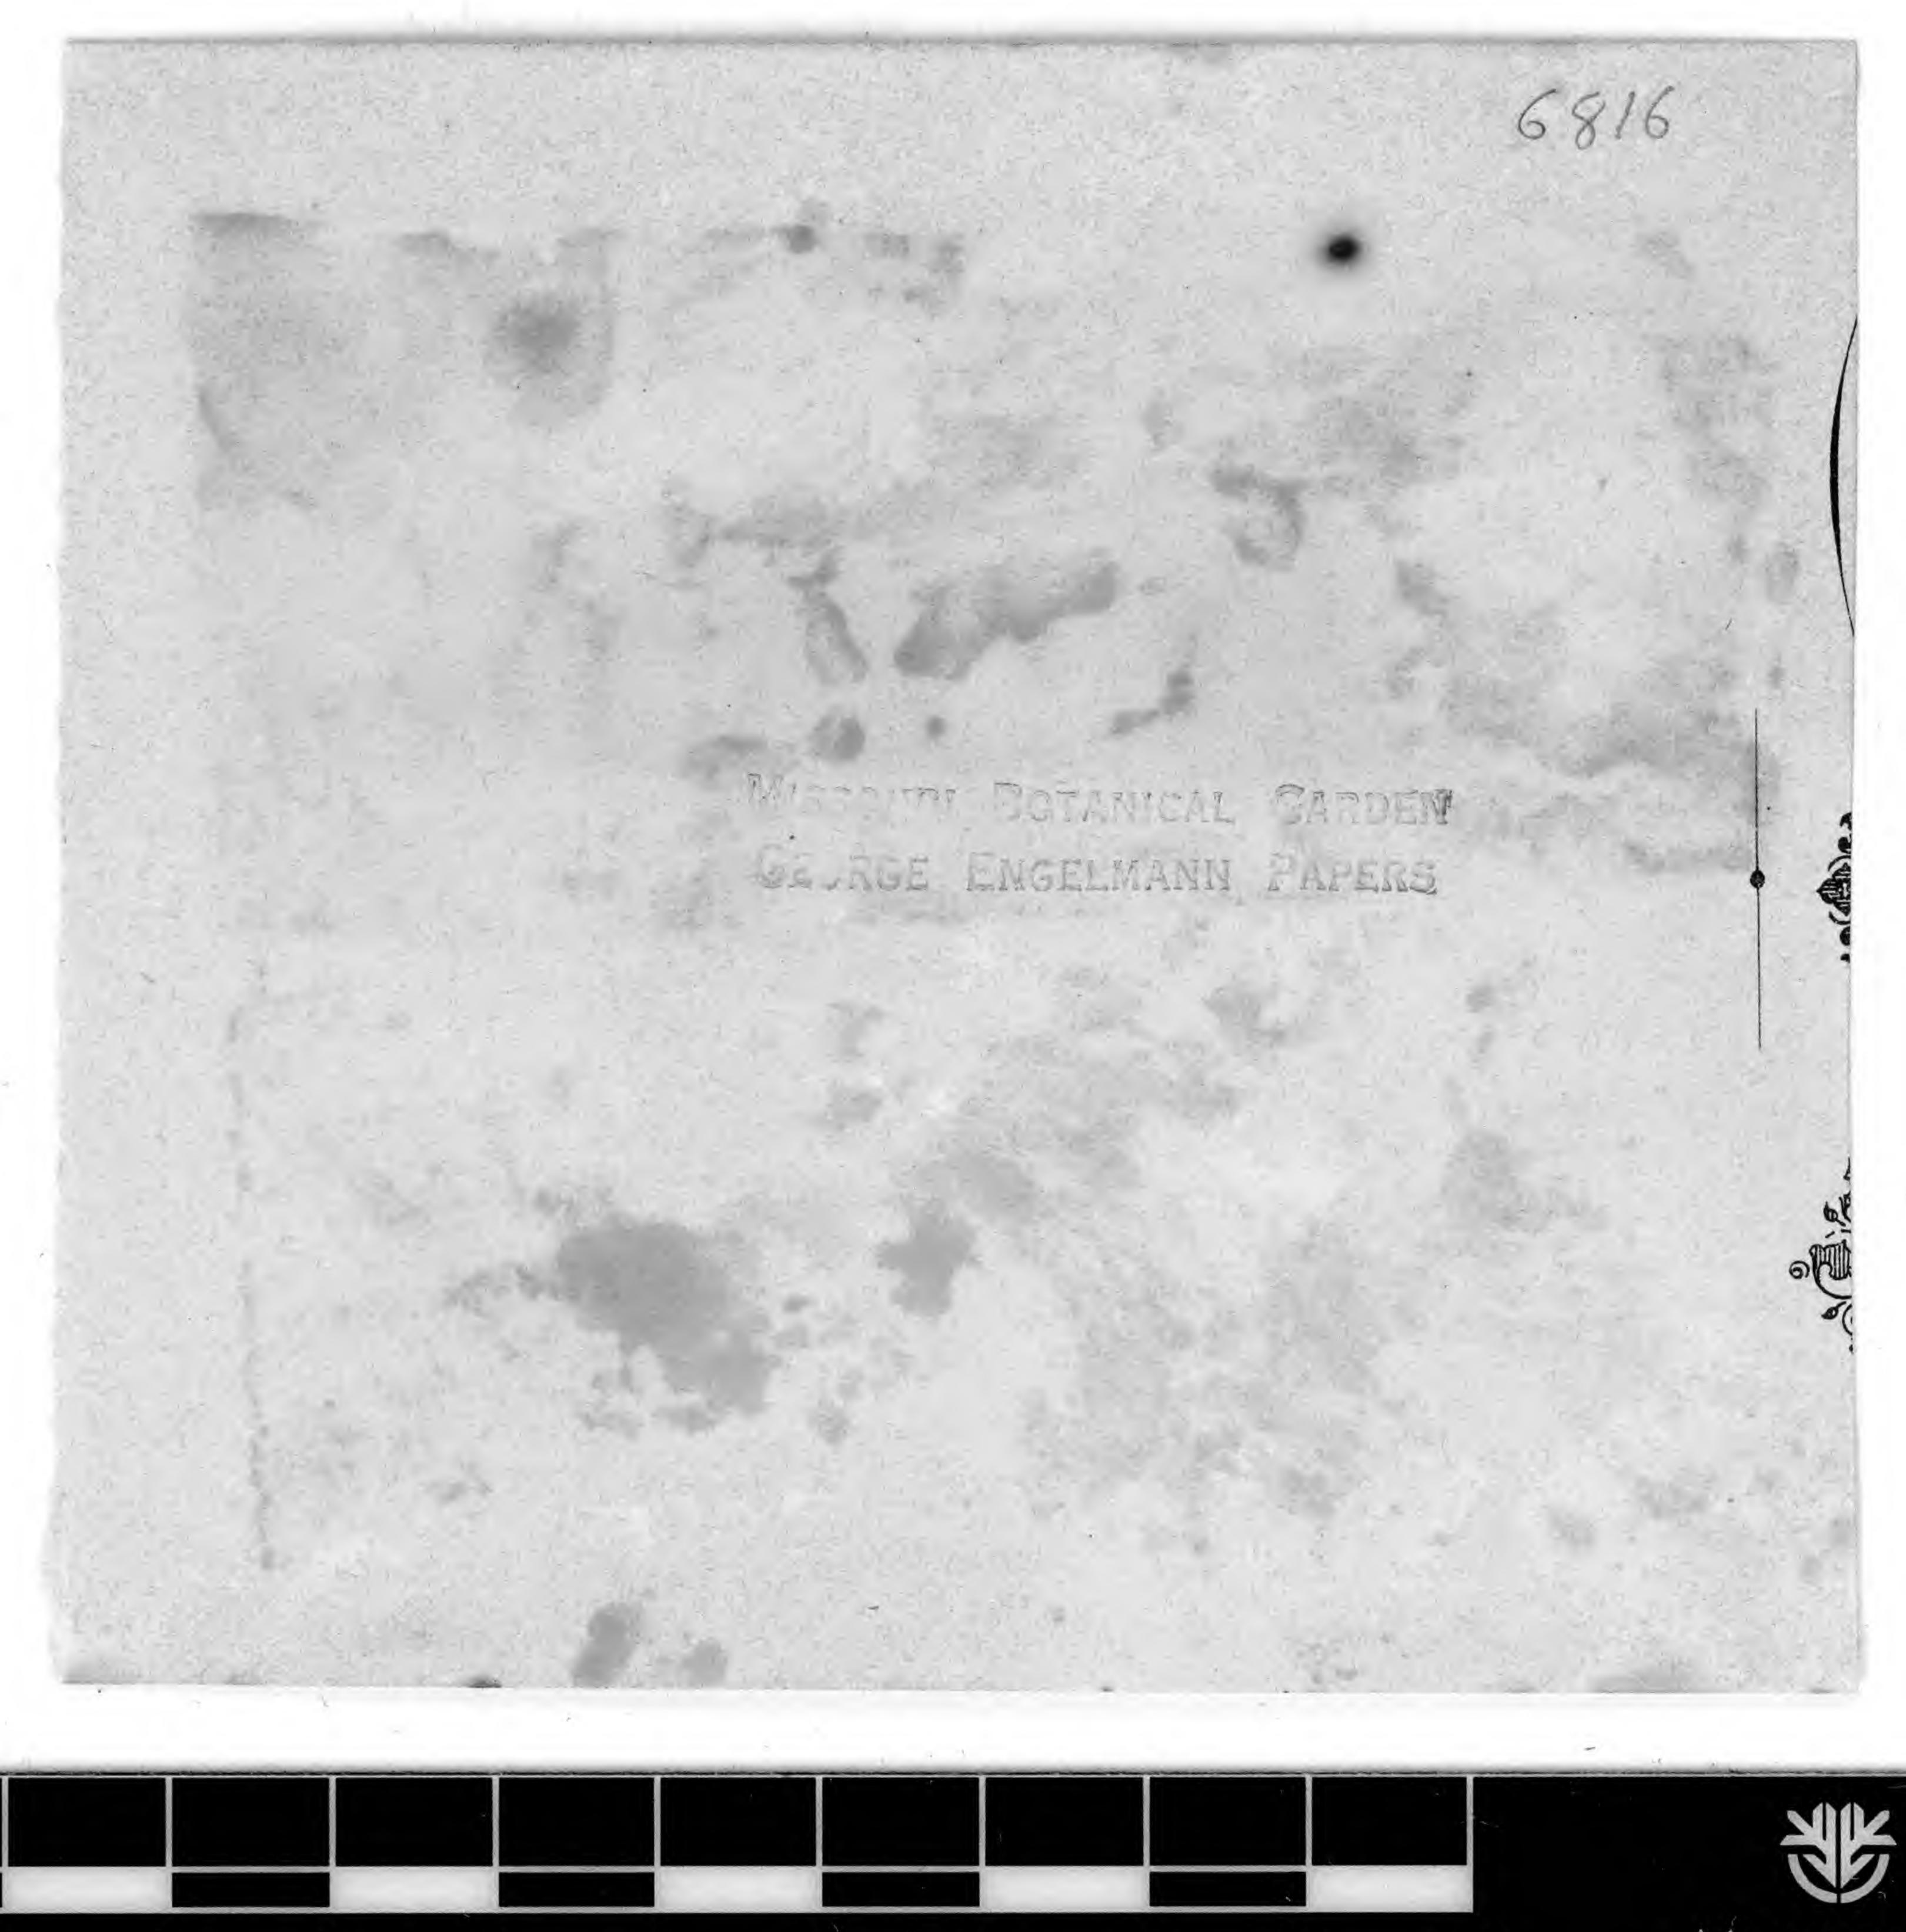

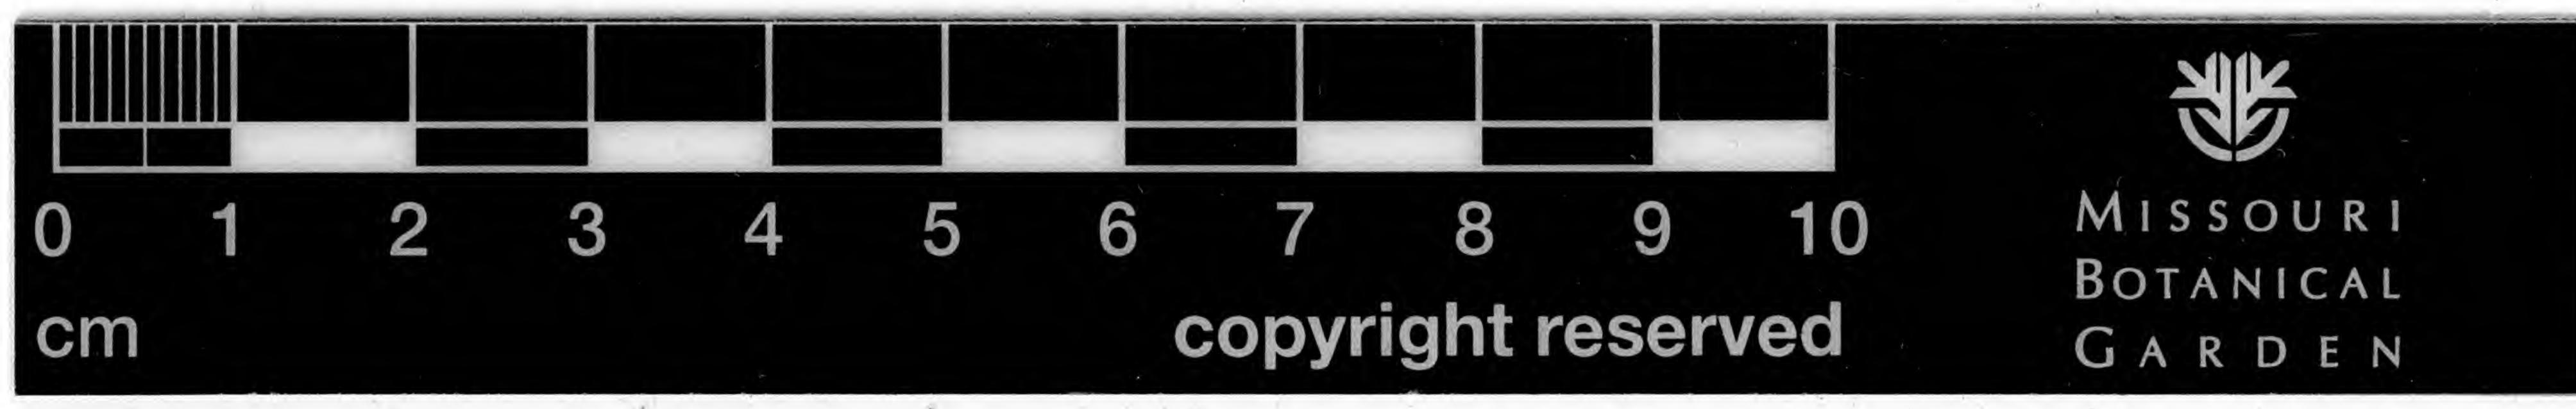

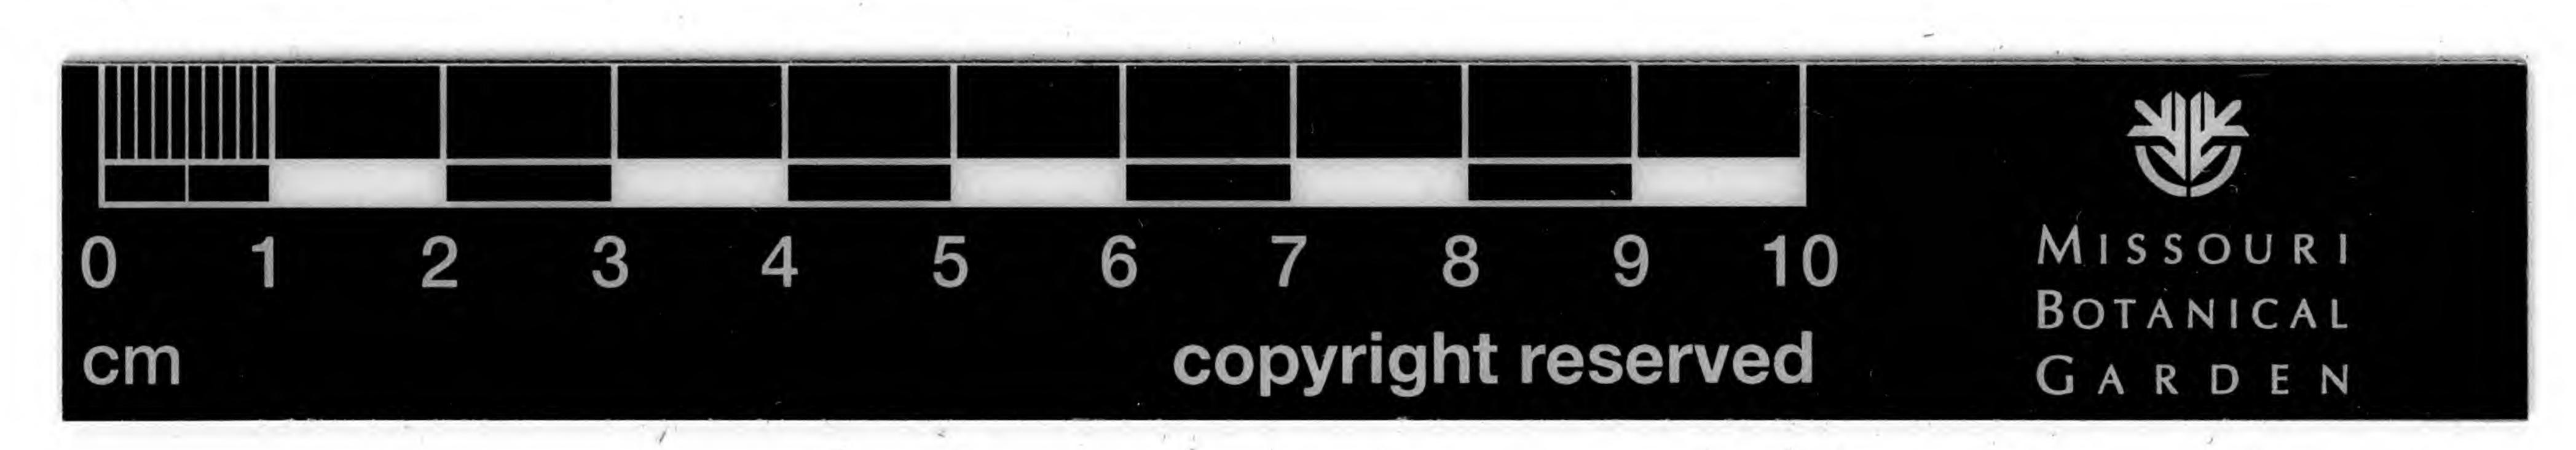

Eugh. Wrangeliam Bors, mis, Conser on the vente Canha on the back Laser Com Continue

MISSOURI BOTANICAL GARDESS GERGE ENGELMANN

Ru Tan 29 18/8 HERBARIUM OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY, A. Welson son.

BOTANIC GARDEN, CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

Bruttan, 1301- Sulphur, 51. 1741. Euphorbia eriantha, sp. n., huba. cea, exstipulata, encha, subdichotome ramona, folis spanis subphidatis, linearibus surrelatis integninisque superiorismos basi discolorismos, capitu. lis terminations aggregatis, involucies ucano tomentosis, dentitus interioritas latis finnbriatis, exterioribus subbrevioribus digitation 7-11-lobis, capsula cano-tomentosa. - Bay of Magdalina. 1+erba strissa, vix judalis, ramis erectis fastigiatis. Folia caulinas panca, semi. policaria, timeam lata, aprice acuta es pancisensta, vil intertum obhesa vil emarginasa et integirma; basi in petiohum 1-2. lim. Vongum angustata-; floralia plumina, approximata, combinis longiora, longins petiolatu et basi albida, caetimine consimilia. Capitula plumma ad apieus ramormi subsissilia. Anvoluenme lineam longum. Styli rami tres, simplices. Capsula

copyright reserved cm

MISSOURI BOTANICAL GARDEN 2 lin. longa. Semina nondrum mahnra in sicco forestata."

AND AND THE PROJECT OF THE SERVICE STATE OF THE SER

the state of the s

and the second of the second o

which a south of a provide the same that we have the south of the sout

and the second of the second o

winder the manufactured in the state of the

The second of th

MISSOURI BOTANICAL GARDEN

CEURGE ENGELMANN PAPERS

(4 m)

0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 cm copyright reserved

MISSOURI BOTANICAL GARDEN

Zu / 1/8 Esulae verre sæls mostt, slukb. Esula poploi dese

